CHINESE DOCTORS TELL OF WAR TRAGEDIES

Chinese Merchants' Club Reception

NEED FOR MEDICAL ORGANISATION

Graphic and poignant stories of their experiences at the front, and strong pleas for immediate organisation of medical services, featured the addresses by three well-known Chinese doctors, Dr. Li Ting-an, late Health Commissioner of Shanghai, Dr. C. S. Mei, late Superintendent of the Emergency Hospital at Soochow, and Dr. Edwin Kam, chief surgeon at the latter hospital, at the reception and tea party held in their honour by the Hong Kong Chinese Medical Association in the Chinese Merchants' Club, China Building, yesterday evening.

Dr. Li Shu-pui presided and a number of prominent local doctors were present.

After tea the Chairman reviewed the activities of the Association for the last month or so, and intimated that the stock of medical supplies on hand were sufficient for some time. He also brought to the notice of the members that the Association had been assailed in certain sections of the vernacular press for not having bought any Liberty Bonds. The money of the Association had, as the members knew, been spent in buying supplies and other ways that were most helpful, but in view of the feeling prevalent, Dr. Li put it to the meeting whether or not they should buy Bonds. It was then revealed that a number of members had already subscribed on their own. A motion was eventually passed that members should be asked to buy the Bonds in the name of the Association.

Dr. Li then welcomed the three guests and called upon Dr. Li Ting-an to address the gathering.

FIGHT TO BITTER END
In a stirring opening, Dr. Li Ting-an said the Sino-Japanese war was inevitable. Through no fault of the Chinese they had to fight. In this fight, which was to the bitter end, they needed every support. If his listeners had seen those wounded Chinese soldiers lying on the ground, exposed to the rain and frost, without dressing, or perhaps with dressing that had gone unchanged for days on end, suffering all sorts of untold agony, they would feel even more strongly than they did now.

They in Hong Kong had done a part, but a lot more remained. A point he wished to stress was that the whole medical system of China was so badly organised that they were at a loss. Theoretically speaking, the system should be under one command. Different units would be scattered all over the country and they

OPEN LETTER TO JAPAN AND THE WORLD

Dr. Stanley Jones
Makes Appeal
For Peace

Dr. E. Stanley Jones, the well-known author and lecturer who has been addressing public gatherings both in Hong Kong and Canton recently, writes the following open letter to the people of the world and to the people of Japan, which is, in part, as follows:—

After writing an open letter to the people of Japan and one to the Christians of the world on the Sino-Japanese war, the next step seemed to be to write to them jointly. In doing so I gather up the conclusions of a group which urged upon me the necessity of expressing these conclusions in this form.

If the cause of this war is military imperialism which desires to conquer and dominate as much of humanity as possible through a sense of superiority and a so-called "national mission," then we have no other alternative but to repudiate this and resist it in every legitimate way. Any nation that takes this attitude is out to ruin itself and others. In that nation's own interest and in the interest of the well-being of the victims of this dominance and of the peace of the world, we must resist by withdrawal. We cannot hope to satisfy the voracious appetite of military imperialism. Nor do we want to do so. That appetite must be starved by collective withdrawal. This militaristic imperialism is evil and must be treated as such.

But where there are legitimate national needs we must try to meet them by collective action and where there are legitimate national grievances, we must remove them. We suggest, as steps in this direction, that:

1. The United States remove at once the grievance that Japan has against us in the Immigration Law. This law is humiliating to Japan and other Asiatic nations and could be removed without creating any serious labour problem, for on a 2 per cent. basis it would involve only 250 people coming in from all Asia each year. This is infinitesimal in a nation of 120 millions. Besides, we could then be in a position to stop smuggling on our borders through which probably a greater number passes over each year. Regardless of Japan's attitude in this war, we should remove this stumbling block.

TOC H BIRTHDAY FESTIVAL

AT YORK TO-DAY

Two thousand members of the world fellowship of Toc H will meet at York to-day and to-morrow for the twenty-second birthday festival of the movement. The original Talbot House at Poperinghe ("Toc H" to the Army signaller) opened its doors for the first time on December 11, 1915. Although the festival is usually held in London, the provinces have welcomed it from time to time. It has taken place, for example, at Leicester, Birmingham, and Manchester. The choice of York this year, an "Observer" representative was told, is a tribute to the steady advance that is being made in the Northern counties.

JAPAN'S THREE-POINT POLICY

ACCEPTED BY CABINET

To Pursue Extended Hostilities

"CHIANG KAI-SHEK RESPONSIBLE FOR PRESENT SITUATION"

Tokyo, Dec. 10. After unreserved exchange of views from the military, diplomatic and economical standpoints, the Cabinet has definitely accepted the policies to be established after the fall of Nanking which were drawn up yesterday afternoon at a conference between the Premier and the Ministers of Foreign Affairs, Finance, Navy and Army.

The policies decided upon were:—

Firstly, to repudiate Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's administration;
Secondly, to pursue extended hostilities;
Thirdly, to assist in the construction of a new China.

The view of Cabinet members, according to a semi-official report, may be summarised as follows. "That Chiang Kai-shek is responsible for the present situation which has been brought about in an attempt to unify China through anti-Japanism, his guiding policy, and therefore it is very difficult for Japan to seek restoration of peace by negotiating with Chiang Kai-shek's government; secondly, the peace talk of the Chinese authorities, which arises from their distressing situation, is conspicuously lacking in faith and sincerity and they have not awakened to the cause of welfare and peace of the Orient but only desire to extricate themselves from their present difficulties; thirdly, that, unless the Chinese Government drops anti-Japanism definitely and finally Japan should disregard China's peace talks and peace moves and, fourthly, in the event of Chiang Kai-shek's Government dwindling to a local regime as a result of the fall of Nanking it is only natural for Japan to aid the rising movement in North and Central China and facilitate the construction of the new and re-spiritualised China."—Reuter.

FIRM CHINESE ATTITUDE

Shanghai, Dec. 10: We vow to uphold our honour and refuse to co-operate with the enemy or buy Japanese goods, says a manifesto received by Reuter "from an important group of Chinese representing various Chinese interests in Shanghai who, for obvious reasons, cannot mention their names." The manifesto, which is signed by "three million citizens of the City of Shanghai," is addressed to "our fathers, brothers and sisters throughout the country." It says, "We emphatically repudiate any spurious organisations set up by the enemy and pledge our continued and whole-hearted allegiance to the Central Government and full support to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek."

The manifesto adds "We must give up any illusion of a compromise in this war which must be fought to a victorious end. Ruined and temporarily isolated Shanghai remains a part of China and we remain one hundred per cent. Chinese."—Reuter.

NON-INTERVENTION COMMITTEE HAS LONG SESSION

London, Dec. 10. The session of the Non-Intervention Committee on Thursday lasted several hours and discussed the proposal to form two sub-committees and send them to Spain in order to determine the exact strength of the volunteers there. JAPANESE BOMBERS SHOT DOWN

Nanchang, Dec. 10: An official investigation into the Japanese air raid yesterday reveals that three bombers were shot down by Chinese combat machines about seven miles north-east of Nanchang following a spectacular dog-fight.

According to eye-witnesses, the Japanese airmen bailed out in their parachutes when their planes were struck in mid-air but all of the fliers were wounded and died when they crashed to the ground. The planes have been located. Several machine-guns have been removed and will be brought to Nanchang for exhibition.—Central News.

MR. ATTLEE WILL FACE CRITICISM

London, Dec. 10: Mr. Clement Attlee, Leader of the Opposition, with other Labour members of Parliament, Miss Ellen Wilkinson and Mr. Philip Noel-Baker, arrived back in London to-day after a visit to Spain at the invitation of the Republican Government.

Questions will be asked in the House of Commons regarding the visit and Mr. Attlee will face criticism when he appears in Commons next week.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

PHILIPPINE ARMY CHIEF FOUND SAFE

Manila, Dec. 10: The Chief of Staff of the Philippine Army, Major-General Santos, who left for Manila by air from Cebu on Monday in company with another machine carrying Army officials but had not been heard of since then, was found to-day. Neither machine reached its destination.

General Santos's plane was found on a small island by an Army plane to whom the Chief of Staff and his companions signalled that all was well.

A plane is at present flying to their rescue.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

Japanese Warship Hit By Chinese Shell

Foochow, Dec. 10: A Japanese warship was hit at the stern and a Japanese steamboat loaded with marines was overturned by shells from Chinese land batteries at Wufeng near Amoy on the east Fukien coast on December 8, an official report just received discloses.

Two Japanese warships, the report states, first fired over 20 shells at the coast, but Chinese land batteries remained inactive. Believing that the Chinese were unprepared, they sent out a batch of marines in two steamboats to make an attempt to land. When the steamboats were near the shore, the Chinese batteries suddenly opened up. During the ensuing artillery duel, one Japanese warship was hit at the stern and one steamboat was overturned.

A number of Chinese houses on shore were also destroyed by Japanese shells.—Central News.

DANGER OF MINEFIELDS

At Entrance To Spanish Ports

London, Dec. 10: The British steamer Celtic Star, conveying a cargo of meat from Southampton to Republican Spain, was compelled to remain at Gibraltar on Thursday evening owing to the fact that about fifty per cent. of the crew refused to continue the journey to Valencia and Barcelona in view of minefields endangering the approach to these Republican ports.—Transocean News Service.

HOSTILITIES AT TSINGTAO

Tsingtao, Dec. 10. Hostilities may break out at Tsingtao momentarily as the Japanese enveloping movement is proceeding apace.

In anticipation of a possible Japanese attack the Tsingtao authorities have long made preparations for defence and with the aggravation of the situation additional crack Chinese troops have been rushed to the port.

Stiff Chinese resistance is expected in the event of a Japanese attempt to land troops.—Central News.

THE MILWAUKEE ROAD

COURT NEWS IN BRIEF

Fines totalling $300 or three months' imprisonment were imposed on a 45-year-old unemployed, Wong Chak, who was found guilty of (a) possession of fermenting materials, (b) possession of dutiable spirit, (c) possession of apparatus and (d) distilling liquor. Senior Revenue Officer, A. W. Grimmit, prosecuted.

Appearing before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Police Court yesterday, Chan Cho-lung, who was charged with unlawful possession of a fountain pen and pencil, uttering forged documents on November 25, and attempting to obtain the sum of $50 by false pretences, was convicted and sentenced to a total term of 10 weeks' imprisonment with the option of a fine of $100. He was also ordered to sign a bond of $100 in surety and cash for good behaviour for a year.

It was stated that defendant on November 25 produced four drafts to cash. The numbers of the drafts was later noticed by the drafts accountant to tally with those that were reported lost. Defendant was then detained and was brought to the police station where he said that the documents were handed to him by his friend to cash.

A. Rokel was fined $20 by Mr. K. Keen at the Kowloon Police Court yesterday on two summonses for driving a car at the excessive speed of 30 miles per hour in the controlled area and 36 miles per hour along Nathan Road on November 24. Defendant pleaded guilty to both charges.

Chan Pat-mui, a 61-year-old widow, was charged before Mr. K. Keen at the Kowloon Magistrate's Court yesterday with kidnapping, Chan Shui-lin, aged 13 on October 23.

Detective Inspector Cunningham told the Court that defendant, on October 18, went to the girl's house informing Chan Shui-lin that she had a job for her if she wanted it. A few days later she and another woman took the girl away to a tea-house after which they took her on the train bound for Chinese territory. On arriving at Cheung-Mok-Tau, defendant sold the girl to a woman for a sum of $145.

Complainant, after staying in her new home ran away and met a stranger to whom she related her whole story. She was then taken to the local police station and was later sent back to Hong Kong.

So Huen, alias So Suen, alias P. C. So, was remanded till 10 a.m. to-day after a lengthy cross-examination by Mr. M. J. Abbott, Assistant Crown Solicitor, at the Central Magistrate's Court, on a charge of forging, with intent to defraud, a promissory note purporting to be made or given by the Yee Hop Firm of No. 10 Tai Wong Street, Wanchai. The case has been proceeding for some time, and is being heard by Mr. R. Edwards.

DEATH INQUEST

An inquest was begun at the Central Magistrate's Court yesterday into the death of Ko Pak-yue, aged 41, salesman employed by the Fuk Cheong Poultry Dealers, who died at his residence at No. 10 West Street, first floor, on November 10. Mr. R. A. D. Forrest sat as Coroner and was assisted by a jury comprising Messrs. P. H. Suckling (foreman), W. L. Barker and S. M. Gidley.

Medical evidence was given by Dr. Lien Tsong-ky, Medical Officer at Queen Mary Hospital, who said that deceased was admitted to the hospital at about 2 p.m. on November 19. He had multiple stab wounds in the upper abdomen and his breath smelt of liquor. He was operated upon, but died. The post-mortem showed 21 external wounds. Death was due to shock from stab wounds in the liver and stomach.

Mr. V. C. Branson, Government Analyst, said he analysed the contents of deceased's stomach and found therein one-eighth ounce of absolute alcohol. He also examined a bottle which was handed to him by the police, and which was stated to have been found in No. 10 West Street. He found that the bottle contained Chinese wine in which was 37 per cent alcohol.

Ko Hui-shing, elder brother of the deceased, said the latter kept a woman known as Sam Ku. The woman had two daughters by a former husband. So far as he knew no trouble existed between his brother and the woman. Deceased usually drank about 40 cents of Chinese liquor per day.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL New Premises Prove Popular

A very successful year was reviewed by the Headmistress when she presented her report at the annual prize giving Ceremony at St. Mary's School yesterday. Mr. C. C. Solis, Principal Inspector of the English Schools, who gave away the awards, in a short speech congratulated the headmistress, her staff and pupils for the excellent year's work and urged the students to strive for even better results this year.

HEADMISTRESS' REPORT

In presenting her report the headmistress said:—

At the beginning of the new scholastic year, September 1936, St. Mary's, having at last completed its new premises, was able to open with more numerous and spacious class rooms, and other minor additions, such as the Common Room, which has proved a great favourite with our girls.

There were 575 students on Roll in September, divided into 18 classes; but by April the number had increased to 598. Owing to the financial difficulties of many families, about 100 pupils were given free tuition and 170 paid reduced fees.

INSPECTION

Mr. E. J. Edwards visited the school on November 23 and 24. In his report he says: "The school continues to maintain a high standard of efficiency. New text books have been introduced for Arithmetic and English. In English the younger children are encouraged to illustrate composition exercises with drawings illustrating their own ideas."

Written work throughout is carefully done and systematically corrected. In the upper Classes Geography and History are well taught. Drawing and needlework are both excellent.

A system of physical training has been introduced—the classes are held in the open air whenever possible. The gymnasium is available in wet or very hot weather."

CHARITABLE ACTIVITIES

The support given in the past to our "School for the Poor" in Hongkong has been continued during the year. Our pupils devoted much of their spare time to teaching illiterate children Chinese, even providing them with books, toys and sweets.

SCHOOL CERTIFICATE

The school year closed in July 1937. All of our girls of class 2 altogether, entered for the School Certificate Examination, 12 passed and Miss Daisy Yao and Miss Phyllis Liang obtained Honours. The entire Matriculation Class of 12 girls sat for the University Examination and all passed and 5 matriculated.

GENERAL

Though St. Mary's is now one of the largest schools in the Colony, we flatter ourselves that it still maintains that family spirit which has always been one of its characteristics, as it is our aim to educate girls of all creeds and nationalities to a fraternal and mutual understanding. In fact visitors have frequently remarked that they find the atmosphere of the school very cheery and bright. Our girls exemplify the spirit of their School Song:

Girls united from all nations
Join we hands in common trust.

SUMMARY COURT CLAIM

Before the Police Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindell, in the Summary Court yesterday, the Noble Silk Store, of No. 86 Queen's Road Central, brought an action against Messrs. Rehman's, of No. 65 Nathan Road, claiming $154.95 being balance due and owing for goods sold and delivered on November 24, 1937, and costs of action.

Plaintiffs were represented by Mr. M. A. da Silva, whilst defendant appeared in person.

After evidence was given, hearing was adjourned till next Friday.

but witness had seldom seen him drunk. He last saw him alive at 5 a.m. on November 19 at the Foultry Dealers'. Witness' opinion was that deceased had committed suicide while under the influence of drink, but he could not give any reason for this.

At this stage the inquest was adjourned till December 15.

TRAFFIC CASES

Traffic Court at Central Magistrate's Court yesterday saw a number of motorists fined by Mr. R. A. D. Forrest.

Capt. E. G. N. Rushbrooke, H.M.S. Tamar, and J. Barnett, of the Public Works Department, were each fined $2 for parking their cars beyond the time limit of two hours in the city on November 25.

A. H. Esmail and Mr. Chu Wang-ye were also fined $2 each for causing an obstruction with their cars on November 27. L. P. Y. Kong and Mr. Chow Sik-ying, summoned for failing to have a red light to the rear of their vehicles on November 26 were cautioned.

For allowing an unlicensed driver to drive in Victoria Road, Wong Wuk-cho was fined $20. The learner, Li Man-ki, charged with driving on a road not specified on his learner's licence, was fined $2. Traffic-Sergeant A. Bethell said Victoria Road was a particularly dangerous thoroughfare.

A fine of $10 was imposed on Mok Kam-yue, driver of lorry No. 679, when he admitted a charge of speeding at 28 miles per hour in Caine Road on November 30. Traffic-Sergeant L. C. Pennell said it was about 1 p.m. and the road was crowded with school children.

ACCOUNTANT STUDENTS' BALI

Distribution Of Awards

The Accountants and Secretaries Students' Society of Hong Kong held its fourth annual Bali at the Peninsula Hotel last night when Mr. F. G. Maund distributed the awards won during the year.

A very large number of people attended and were treated to a programme of variety items, those contributing to the evenings' entertainment being Miss Rita Weyler, Messrs. H. A. Rozario, H. L. da Silva, C. Rozario and S. B. Izatt.

Mr. Maund in thanking the Society for asking him to give away the awards, congratulated the prize-winners on their success and said how thoroughly he enjoyed himself there that evening.

PRINCIPAL'S SPEECH

Addressing the gathering the principal said:—

Ladies and Gentlemen: We have in our midst to-night Mr. F. G. Maund, who has very kindly consented to present the awards. Mr. Maund is an expert accountant who has enjoyed several years of practical experience in the Colony; to many of you he is known as the popular supervisor at the Institute of Book-keepers examinations. I feel sure we are all grateful to him for the friendly interest he has consistently shown in the School and for his presence to give away the prizes.

Expression of thanks must be tendered to the examination Supervisors who have given so unselfishly of their time. Mention must be made of the late Mr. Ko Leong Hoe, who acted as Supervisor in 1934, and the following who supervised the examinations held in 1935 and 1936:—

Mr. F. B. da Silva (Senior), Mr. U. Tat Chee, Mr. Wong Wing See, M.B.A., L.I.A. (August), A.C.C.S. in 1937, the name of Dr. E. L. de Sousa was added to the list of Honorary Supervisors.

Frequently we receive requests from local employers to supply them with clerical workers, stenographers, or book-keepers. We have invariably been able to comply with these requests; several of our students have thus been able to secure positions through the agency of the School.

Upset Stomach Quickly Put Right

Stomach disturbances such as digestive pain, gastritis, wind, heartburn, and feeling of revolt, are invariably the result of "acid formation" which, as a rule, gets worse and worse and may ultimately lead to serious ulcers. By counteracting excess acid and preventing its formation, BISMAG ("Bismarck" Magnesia) quickly puts right an upset stomach; pains disappear instantly, fermentation and wind are banished and soothing relief supersedes uncomfortable disturbance. Thousands have ended stomach trouble with BISMAG ("Bismarck" Magnesia)—you can do the same! Ask for "BISMAG" powder or tablets to-day and always see the oval sign on every pack.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

GAUDETE SUNDAY

Three Sundays of the year are sometimes called by a special name which is the first word of the Mass of that day. The best known in the past, Quasimodo Sunday, is the least known now. That day is now known as Low Sunday, the first Sunday after Easter. The others are Laetare Sunday, in the middle of Lent, and Gaudete Sunday, the third Sunday of Advent, which is to-morrow. The two last are very similar. Both the words mean "Rejoice" and each gives the key to the character of the prayers of the day. The note of penance which characterises the liturgy of Lent and Advent is temporarily raised and a note of joy introduced into the approach of Christmas, the Nativity of Christ, for the celebration of which the four weeks of Advent are a preparation.

Before each important feast of the Church there is what is called a Novena of preparation. This consists in special prayers said for nine days before the feast. (The custom arose through imitation of the nine days which Mary and the Apostles spent in prayer while waiting for the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost). The Novena before Christmas begins on Thursday next. There will be devotions in each of the churches: in the Cathedral at 5.30 p.m., in St. Margaret's, the Rosary Church and St. Teresa's at 7.30 in the morning and in Wanchai chapel at 6.30 p.m.

HOME FOR STREET SLEEPERS

The annual report of this Kowloon charity, which appeared in the press within the past week, gives an account of an interesting and very valuable branch of Social Work which is being carried on in the Colony. There are two ways of tackling most big social problems: in the mass, when an attempt is made to deal with the greatest possible number, and in detail, when a small section of the problem is tackled and dealt with thoroughly. Both methods obviously have their uses. The second is that followed in St. Francis' Home. In two ground-floor flats furnished with modern sanitation, baths and kitchens, fifty poor people are accommodated, and personal attention is given to them by some of the members of the Third Order of St. Francis, one of whom sleeps on the premises every night. Medical attention is given to those who require it, three doctors giving their services voluntarily for this purpose; clothes are fumigated, baths provided and a clean warm bed is available for each of the poor persons. The spirit of the Third Order of St. Francis is that of the "Poor Man of Assisi" and the members try to show practical love of the poor. The public showed appreciation of the work by supporting it generously, and a branch shelter is being opened this year in Kowloon city, where there will be facilities for thirty more street sleepers.

BING CROSBY

Reference was made in this column a few weeks ago to some Catholic film stars at Hollywood. Another recently appeared in the news when Bing Crosby, the crooner so well-known to radio and film audiences, received an honorary degree from his Alma Mater, Gonzaga University, a Jesuit institution of Spokane, Washington. In ordinary life Mr. Crosby is known as something more than what a crooner is expected to be. He is a university graduate and a man of very varied interests. One of his interests is the foreign missions, and every week a package averaging 10,000 stamps from his "fan mail" is sent to the Mission Stamp Bureau of Mt. St. Michael's, Spokane, which is carried on in aid of the Jesuit foreign missions.

THE BEDA COLLEGE

When some time ago there was mention in the papers of the Earl of Perth visiting, or receiving some visitor from, the Beda College, Rome, someone wanted to know who was the Earl of Perth and what was the "Beda." By this time most newspaper readers are aware that the Earl of Perth is the former Sir Eric Drummond with the new title to which he has succeeded. The title is an old one, and the most famous holder of it was the sixth Earl who was with Bonnie Prince Charlie in '45. The new Earl, who was formerly secretary to the League

The "Beda," as the College is popularly known, is a contraction of the name: St. Beda's College. It is called after the well-known English saint and man of letters who is usually referred to as the "Venerable Bede." It is a college specially intended for those who are somewhat advanced in life before they wish to study for the priesthood. Many well-known English converts studied there. The Rector of the College told some people who asked about it recently that if St. Paul had lived in our days he would almost certainly have been sent to study at the "Beda."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG

The subject of the lesson sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, to-morrow, December 12th, will be,

"GOD THE PRESERVER OF MAN."

The Golden Text will be "The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever." (II Timothy 4:18).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible "Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God the Lord, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint." (Isa. 40:28-31).

The lesson sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "The consciousness of Truth rests us more than hours of repose in unconsciousness. The Scriptures say, 'They that wait upon the Lord shall not be weary, and not faint.' The meaning of that passage is not prevented by applying it literally to moments of fatigue, for the moral and physical are as one in their results. When we reach our limits of mental endurance, we conclude that intellectual labour has been carried sufficiently far; but when we realize that immortal Mind is ever active, and that spiritual energies can neither wear out nor can so-called material law trespass upon God-given powers, and resource we are able to rest in Truth, refreshed by the assurances of immortal opposed to mortality." (pages 218 and 387).

The public is invited to attend the services and to visit the Reading Room.

This magnificent and very necessary social work had a very humble beginning in a couple of rooms in the year 1898. The present HOME was opened in 1929 and the Extension was completed in 1934.

Year by year the Hong Kong public generously show their appreciation of the work of the "Sailors and Soldiers' Home," but it does need to be remembered that the Home, with its manifold activities, owes its origin to the Church and continues to be sustained largely by the Church to-day.

Such a survey of history is a great inspiration to those of us whose privilege it is to follow in this succession. We thank God for the Pioneers and their achievements, and we pray that we may be worthy of our heritage.

But our need for support is constant, because of the continual changes taking place in personnel. Especially do we need the service of consecrated lives, and it may be that this word will catch the eye of some who are able to respond.

Perhaps there are those who have memories of a Methodist Sunday School in England; or may be, knowledge of parents who are stalwarts at some Bethel in England where they remember their own kith and kin far away.

To you, and indeed to all, we send out this sincere invitation to link up with the true Methodist fellowship which is here in Hong Kong.

CHAPEL ANNIVERSARY

By the Rev. J. E. Sandbach.

On Sunday, December 12th, the English Methodist Church at Wanchai will celebrate its Anniversary.

I wish to take this opportunity of appealing to the public of the Colony, and especially to those with Methodist traditions and who have had some association with Methodist Sunday Schools and Churches, to support us next Sunday with their presence and their gifts.

Methodism in Hong Kong, has a record of which she is justly proud. The following facts are significant and deserve to be widely known.

Almost as soon as the Colony had been founded, the first Society Class began to meet. That was as long ago as 1843. The old Pioneers had something of the spirit of John Wesley himself whose watch-word was "The world is my parish."

Rooms for public worship and fellowship were first rented in 1862. A Minister, a young probationer, was appointed in 1890, and the present Church was opened in 1893.

In 1898 the Rev. Charles Bone began his memorable eighteen years ministry here, and this also marked the beginning of that social work among the Services, now represented by the "Sailors and Soldiers' Home."

This magnificent and very necessary social work had a very humble beginning in a couple of rooms in the year 1898. The present HOME was opened in 1929 and the Extension was completed in 1934.

Year by year the Hong Kong public generously show their appreciation of the work of the "Sailors and Soldiers' Home," but it does need to be remembered that the Home, with its manifold activities, owes its origin to the Church and continues to be sustained largely by the Church to-day.

THE CITY OF GOD

THE ORIGIN OF THE RACES

BY SCRUTATOR

When the period of recorded history commences almost the entire body of existing humanity was living in south eastern Asia. Then as now, India and China were great reservoirs of human beings.

INDIA: In India the tropical conditions combined to multiply human beings quickly and to destroy them just as suddenly. Fear of the invisible powers which commanded the winds and the torrential rains beset the primitive mind here most sorely. The bulk of the people lived dangerously near the subsistence level yet the wealth which they collected among them was always an attraction to invaders. The people were called Dravidians—a submissive, industrious, intelligent race with very dark complexions. Away in the north round about the Baltic sea were a vigorous people of exceedingly fair complexions, who for want of a better name were called the Aryans. Some thousands of years before our era they were set in motion by some disturbance, economic or otherwise. In the course of time their migrations reached India. Most of their women having died on the way, these people began to mate with the Dravidian stock whom they seem to have conquered everywhere.

AFRICA: Very much the same thing happened in Africa in the seventeenth century. Europeans came to South Africa and made their homes there, and the males being largely in excess of the females they began to mate with African women, producing half-breeds, called locally Cape boys, or Griquas. These people held themselves aloof from the Kafirs and Hottentots, just as they were segregated from the Europeans. This process always produces three castes, and the same process is at work in the coloured communities of North America.

CASTE SYSTEM: The stratification produced by these means in India, over thousands of years have, divided Hindu society into more than two thousand castes. At the top are the Brahmins, whose skins are no darker than that of the Latin races. The mixtures of the Latin races, the joyous faiths of the CHINA: China was by nature designed as a country peculiarly fitted to seclude a portion of mankind from the rest of its fellows. This country was peopled by Mongolians whose features and philosophy were formed by the stress of life on the great northern steppelands before they invaded China and took to agriculture. The variations of temperature and other climatic conditions in a country so gigantic as China caused Mongolian people to preserve the industrious habits which they had acquired in their life in the north. For this reason and others, the outlook on life shared by the Chinese is as different as anything can be from the Indian outlook. The Chinese are certainly not disposed to regard the good things of this life as illusory; they reveal under even the sorest of circumstances cheerfulness and courage more than any other race under the sun. At one period they outdistanced the rest of the world in the greatness of the civilization which they achieved. They produced for themselves a great, one of the greatest, philosophy, but they have never produced a great religion and are generally accepted as the least religiously inclined of all peoples, and for that reason were more susceptible to outside religious faiths. For that reason the intensely religious feeling of the Indians spread to China and beyond it to Japan and to a certain extent coloured their outlook.

This great amassing of peoples in South-eastern Asia explains the high levels of civilization which they reached, but because the religion of negation which was born in India spread over the greater communities around, this civilization was undermined. You cannot build upon a negation, so when a people sprung into existence from the primitive stocks, who affirmed the goodness of life, who had the idea that the universe was good and that man's life is valuable they were destined to rise to higher heights than all others.

By order of the vicar, communicants at the parish church of Barrow Hill, near Chesterfield, are not to be permitted to appear at the altar rails with "even the slightest touch of lipstick."

NOVEL SETTING

Grim mystery among a group of people gathered around a table for a seance, and solution of a baffling murder by the use of a second seance, with the murder weapon's location known only to the audience, are but a few of the exciting elements in "The Thirteenth Chair," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, showing at the Majestic Theatre yesterday.

A murder is committed by one of twelve people, all of whom are open to suspicion, yet none of whom ever leaves the scene of the crime, provides the basis for the story.

A notable cast lends itself to the excellent quality of "The Thirteenth Chair." Dame May Whitty, the famous English star who scored in "Night Must Fall," plays the occult who solves the mystery. Madge Evans and Thomas Beck furnish the romantic interest, and other outstanding featured players include Lewis Stone as the Inspector, Elissa Landi, Henry Daniell, Janet Beecher, Ralph Forbes, Holmes Herbert and Heather Thatcher.

THE PRISONER OF ZENDA

He did it with mirrors!

Ronald Colman has succeeded in imparting to his dual role in David O. Selznick's "The Prisoner of Zenda," showing to-day at the King's Theatre, the most distinct separation of two personalities ever portrayed on the screen by a single star. His method was unique in the annals of filmdom. Colman, who with Madeleine Carroll and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., heads the "Zenda" cast, used mirrors to achieve the striking result. He plays the part of both King Rudolf, a reigning monarch, and Rudolph Rassendyll, an English gentleman, two persons whose personalities and traits are different, though their looks are the same.

100 MEN AND A GIRL

Deanna Durbin, who rose to screen fame in "Three Smart Girls," will be starred in her second picture, Universal's "100 Men And A Girl," a comedy drama with music which opens to-day at the Queen's Theatre. Featured with Deanna Durbin is Leopold Stokowski, famous conductor of the Philadelphia Symphony.

An unusual cast surrounds Deanna. Adolphe Menjou is seen as her father. Alice Brady portrays a society matron and Eugene Pallette is Alice Brady's husband.

THIS WAY PLEASE

Given a galaxy of stars that includes Mary Livingstone and the delicious laugh which made her a star of the Jack Benny programme, Charles "Buddy" Rogers, Betty Grable, Ned Sparks and two other top-notch radio stars beloved of millions, Fibber McGee and Molly, we have a right to expect "This Way Please," which opens at the Alhambra Theatre to-day to be a riotous comedy brimful of good music and romance.

The story revolves around a motion picture theatre manager's numerous troubles in handling his stage show and his impressionable usherettes. Charles "Buddy" Rogers is the band leader, the idol of all the fluttering feminine hearts and Betty Grable the out-of-work singer and dancer who accepts a job as usherette. Sparks, as the press agent, whips up a

The Three gentlemen above, Wally Vernon, Komo Vincent and Jerry Bergen, are singing "Voom, Yoom," a song you'll be singing soon if you're not already doing it. The song is one of the four hit songs in "This Way Please," which opens to-day at the Alhambra Theatre with Mary Livingstone, Charles "Buddy" Rogers and Betty Grable in the leading roles.

KING'S COLLEGE HAVE FINE YEAR

Good Results In Sports And Studies

Warm praise for another splendid year's record, both in work and in play, was proffered by the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, C.M.G., LL.D., at the Annual Prize-Giving ceremony at King's College yesterday, after he had distributed the awards. Dr. Kotewall commented on the remarkably fine attendance, the excellent results shown in the University School Certificate Examination and the feat of the school football team in winning the junior football league without the loss of a single game.

Mr. W. Kay, Director of Education, and Mr. W. Lucas Handy-side, Acting Headmaster of Queen's College, were amongst the distinguished visitors present.

In presenting his report, the Headmaster, the Rev. G. E. S. Upsell, said:—
"Dr. Kotewall, Director of Education, Ladies and Gentlemen: After several years' absence from a senior Chinese school in this Colony it has been a refreshing experience to take charge of this college during the time that the Headmaster Mr. Kay has been acting Director of Education. The co-operation of the parents and the desire of the boys to obtain the greatest value out of the education provided, contribute very largely to the success of any educational institution and an average attendance of 98 per cent. throughout the year in a school of 800 boys speaks for itself.

"This College, as such, was only opened in 1928 but traditions, worthy of its position in the Colony, are being steadily and surely established.

Studies

"Fifty-eight boys in Class I entered for the Hong Kong University School Certificate Examination and 57 sat, out of whom 51 passed, making 89.5 per cent. passes. Of these, 7 obtained honours, 23 qualified for Matriculation, and a total of 39 Distinctions were gained. Two of the three King Edward VII scholarships, awarded on the results of this examination, were obtained by Shum Lau Kwong and Ling Kwok Kwan of this school. Two Government Studentships in Training were awarded to King's College Boys as a result of this examination and we hope that they in future years will reproduce the high standards which they have seen exemplified in the Staff here. As this is the last time that this examination will be held in this form I should like to express the school's appreciation of the efficient manner in which this examination has been conducted, and our thanks to the University accordingly.

"Seventy-five boys sat for the School Certificate examination conducted by the Hong Kong Local Examination Syndicate and 60 passed, being 80.7 per cent. Five of the candidates obtained Honours and there were 18 distinctions. (Applause).

"The Chinese studies in this school have received my very close attention and I am pleased with the work which is being done; it is of the utmost importance that the boys should have a sound knowledge of elementary Chinese before they enter this school so that the Chinese instruction may have firm foundations and the boys not find the subsequent work wearisome and dull.

Sports

"Team games showed a distinct improvement throughout the year, and we recorded a signal success in the Government Junior football league by winning the championship without the loss of a game. In the Volley ball league, organised by the Y.M.C.A., we won the small boys championship and were runners up in the Junior and Senior divisions. The basketball team was not so successful, but did well to finish in the middle of the league table. During the Winter, a ping pong championship and Small Ball Football championship were organised and enthusiastically contested.

Boy Scouts

"A troop of 21 scouts is maintained. One indoor meeting is held every week and, in addition, there are the usual hikes and camps. It is encouraging to see more boys from Classes 6, 7 and 8 joining up, and we hope this will continue.

"We are greatly honoured in having the presence of Dr. Kotewall with us here this morning. A member of the Executive Council and a very busy man yet his long interest in the educational work of this Colony has been fully sustained and it is with much pleasure that I ask him to give away the prizes." (Applause).

Dr. Kotewall then distributed the awards.

FAMOUS STREET

For Film

If the film, "A Yank at Oxford," on which Robert Taylor is working, proves unconvincing it will not be for want of care in the matter of décor, writes a Home correspondent.

At the Denham studios I found as realistic a reproduction of a section of Oxford's High-street as could be imagined. From a side street a stream of traffic, including vans borrowed from Oxford tradesmen, entered the High and passed the handsome ivy-covered facade of Cardinal—a college invented for the purposes of the picture—not unlike Brasenose.

In the distance one glimpsed the roof of another college. All around were shops—a bookseller's, a tobacconist's, a tailor's, and a familiar old public-house.

The action, so complicated is the process of film-making, took the best part of a day to shoot, and will probably last a minute on the screen. Along the High, on the wrong side, comes an American undergraduate—Robert Taylor—who has only just arrived at Oxford.

Cerebos Purity Products

Middlewich Salt in glass-stoppered jars remains dry and free-running no matter how damp the weather. Its fine and unvarying quality will come as a pleasant surprise to those not already using this excellent salt.

Cerebos Jelly Crystals are esteemed for their natural fruit flavours and set quickly in this climate. They make a delightful and nutritious sweet for parties and every occasion. In twelve flavours.

Bisto is world-famed as the simplest and most satisfactory gravy-maker. It provides all the thickening, seasoning and flavouring necessary. Besides this it greatly improves soups, stews and all meat dishes.

EMPIRE UNITY STRESSED

Premier On Forces
Linking British Peoples

London, Dec. 9.
Mr. Neville Chamberlain, the Prime Minister, was enthusiastically received when he addressed an audience of nearly 3,000 in London to-day in connection with the Empire Unity Campaign.
Mr. Chamberlain said that under the Ottawa agreement, Britain's imports from the countries represented there had been increased by 41 per cent, while Britain's exports to those countries had been increased by 46 per cent. between 1932 and 1936, and there had been a great increase in imports and exports for the first nine months of this year.
Mr. Chamberlain added: "So we see that the policy of Imperial Preference in practice has been twice blessed. It has benefited the Dominions and also this country."

TRADE STIMULUS

During the same period Britain's exports to foreign countries had also greatly increased. These figures proved that the increase in Imperial trade, instead of diminishing foreign trade had added economic stability to the world and had therefore proved to be a stimulus to the international exchange of goods.

Referring to the Imperial Conference after the Coronation, Mr. Chamberlain said that never in all the history of Imperial Conferences was the sense of kinship better or fundamental unity between the representatives on all essential issues more clearly demonstrated. There were further efforts they could make to bring them nearer the goal—namely collaboration with other partners in the British Commonwealth in the means of defence—in their attitude and relation with foreign Powers, and in the development of means of communication and the building up of scanty populations with fresh blood.

RIVAL GOVERNMENTS

Speaking of the rival systems of government, Mr. Chamberlain said: "It is no wish of ours to prescribe to other nations the sort of Government they should have. For ourselves we prefer and mean to maintain that form of democracy we have built up for hundreds of years and which is best suited to the habits, ways and thought of our people."

"We rejoice to find that in these great Dominions there, too, are the same forms of democracy, untouched by Fascism or Communism, standing for the same ideals of peace, liberty and justice that we do ourselves."
"We realise by our partnership with these other democracies that we are raised from the status of a fourth-rate Power to be the heart of an Empire which stands in the front rank of all the Powers of the world."—Reuter.

EUROPE'S PEACE FABRIC SHAKEN

Recalled Japanese
Envoy Speaks

Tokyo, Dec. 10.
Mr. Masayuki Tani, Japanese Minister in Austria, has returned to Tokyo, having been recalled by the Foreign Office. It is understood that Mr. Tani is shortly proceeding to North China on an important mission.

In a press interview, Mr. Tani said the old peace fabric Europe was shaken to the ground. Consequently a movement for reconstruction was under way.

Alluding to the Sino-Japanese conflict, he expressed the opinion that the world was entering an era of reconstruction to which Japan also must bend her efforts and energies.—Reuter.

JAPANESE UNIT BESEIGED

Hangchow, Dec. 10: The Japanese column which has been besieged in Wushing by Chinese forces during the last few days are reported to be running short of food supplies, it is learned here.
The main Chinese column in this area is reported to be making steady progress against the Japanese, who are rushing heavy reinforcements to Wushing in an attempt to lift the siege. Other Japanese units are moving towards Kwangteh, in Anhwei, which is now in the hands of the Chinese.—Central News.

Soviet Leader Sounds Warning

Russia Mighty Enough
To Crush Enemies
If Attacked

Moscow, Dec. 9.
Soviet Russia has kept out of war for more than 18 years, but now she is ready to meet any attackers, declared M. Molotov, President of the Union Council of People's Commissars in an election address to his constituency. He added the Soviet would completely crush her enemies, but the main enemy was beyond the borders of the Soviet and in the camp of bellicose Imperialism, especially the fascist countries.

The Soviet was persistently carrying out serious measures to consolidate the defence of the country, declared Molotov. "We are strengthening the Red army and strengthening the defence of industry, and we desire that every plant and every collective farm should be a fortress to defend our economy and our culture."

"RUBY STARS"

After a satirical reference to the anti-Comintern Pact, M. Molotov stated that "in the event of armed attack on the Soviet, the attacker will feel both the might of our iron self-defence and the power and light of the Soviet ruby stars which shine far beyond the borders of our country."

From all parts of the Soviet Union crowded meetings heard an address from all the Union Central Council and Trade Unions, in which it was stated that the "Soviet will mercilessly crush and destroy all enemies. The Soviet now has the means to crush enemy forces and fascist bands if they attempt to attack our country."—Reuter.

NANKING UNIVERSITY MOVES TO CHENG TU

Hankow, Dec. 10: Nanking University, the largest missionary institution in the capital, is being moved to Chengtu as a result of the fighting around Nanking.

The first batch of 200 students and professors arrived here and have made arrangements to hold classes for the time being in the Central China University on the Wuchang side owing to difficulty in finding transportation to Chengtu. The entire collection of books and scientific apparatus has also been brought to Hankow, and will shortly be sent up-river.—Central News.

TSINGTAO PREPARED TO RESIST

Japanese Attempt Will Be Made Expensive

Tsingtao, Dec. 10: Admiral Shen Hung-ling, Mayor of Tsingtao, and other local military authorities have announced their determination to "resist to death" any Japanese attempt on Tsingtao.

Interviewed by Reuter, the Mayor said: "We shall defend Tsingtao to the last, and furthermore any Japanese attempt to storm Tsingtao will be made as expensive as possible," adding that the local situation is "heading fast toward a crisis" as an enveloping movement is proceeding.

All Chinese banks are keeping open and doing business as usual, and shipping and other commercial activities are continuing normally. Higher Chinese officials have left Tsingtao owing to the reduction in the administrative staffs of the Government departments.—Reuter.

JAPANESE TO CROSS YELLOW RIVER

Tainan, Dec. 10: According to a despatch received here, the Japanese have brought a fleet of 70 motor boats to Yencheng on the north bank of the Yellow River, and it is believed that they will shortly attempt to land troops on the south bank to continue their drive farther south. All available lumber and logs in the surrounding area are also being taken by the Japanese to build rafts.—Central News.

ITALY'S WITHDRAWAL FROM LEAGUE

Serious Obstacle To Anglo-Italian Rapprochement

SHARP ATTACK BY SECTION OF BRITISH PRESS

ITALIAN MEMBERSHIP OF LEAGUE WAS MERE FARCE

London, Dec. 10: The possible withdrawal of Italy from the League of Nations has attracted an unusual amount of attention in British political and press circles although it is admitted that such a step by Premier Benito Mussolini was not unexpected. The entire press this morning features the announcement, which it is claimed has been confirmed by Italian circles in Geneva, in large headlines that such action would, without doubt, constitute a serious obstacle to further rapprochement between Great Britain and Italy.

The "Daily Telegraph and Morning Post" refers in this connection to the British Premier, Mr. Neville Chamberlain's wish for direct expression of opinion between the two Governments which should begin with conversations between the British Ambassador in Rome, Lord Perth, and the Italian Foreign Minister, Count Ciano, but points out that the state of affairs during the past two months have been such as to prevent discussions of any kind.

The paper intimates that the Italian withdrawal from the League would mean an indefinite postponement of any discussions between the two nations.

IL DUCE'S PLAN

The "Daily Mail" asserts that such action would open the way to discussions proposed by Mr. Chamberlain and goes on to state that on the authority of its Rome correspondent that Signor Mussolini intends, within the near future, to submit a plan for solution of the non-intervention problem to the Western Powers which will reveal his willingness to make extensive concessions. This plan, declares the paper, is inspired by a wish to prove Anglo-Italian relations, although it is in reality based upon the Italian reaction to the British policy.

SHARP ATTACK

The Socialist paper "Daily Herald" utilizes the opportunity for a sharp attack on Italy declaring that Italian membership in the League during the past two years has been a mere farce. "The vociferous applause with which Mussolini has encouraged the Japanese criminal action in China and his refusal to participate in international co-operation indicate plainly his attitude towards the League," says the paper.

POWER OVER PEACE

The step which Italy is now planning to take reveals Il Duce's preference for power over peace, justice and liberty.

SHANGHAI CUSTOMS SITUATION

Japanese Government Not Yet Satisfied

Tokyo, Dec. 10: While acknowledging the fact that a number of Japanese nationals were recently appointed to posts in the Shanghai Chinese Maritime Customs, a spokesman of the Foreign Office declared at a press conference today that the Japanese Government was not yet satisfied about the Chinese Maritime Customs in Shanghai.

He added that negotiations regarding the Customs situation were still being continued.

SITUATION IN WAZIRISTAN

Majority Of Additional Garrison Withdrawn

New Delhi, Dec. 10: More than half of the additional garrison at Waziristan, numbering 5,000, have been withdrawn from the province and the normal strength of the garrison is 20,000. The Indian Government is optimistic of the situation in Waziristan becoming better and that they do not believe there will be any trouble during the cold weather although Fakir Ipi is still at large.

JAPANESE MEET WITH STUBBORN CHINESE RESISTANCE

Defenders In Capital Blow Up Bridges

TOKYO, DECEMBER 10: THE JAPANESE ARE REPORTED TO HAVE ENTERED NANKING CITY.—REUTER.

Shanghai, December 10: With aeroplanes raining bombs and artillery laying a powerful barrage, Japanese infantry headed by tanks and other mechanised units tried to-day to clear the paths to the age-old high seawall around Nanking to crush back the defenders and enter the city as its first alien conquerors. The tide of the battle ran in favour of the Japanese who, however, encountered most stubborn resistance from the Chinese whose operations were directed by General Tang Sheng-chi, garrison commander at Nanking. Two Japanese observation balloons appear southward of the Purple Mountain and remained aloft despite Chinese attempts to bring them down.

A number of Chinese tanks were put out of action by the Japanese fire.

The city echoed with heavy explosions all night long as the Chinese blew up bridges and other strategic features.

Meanwhile a flanking Japanese force of 7,000 men including cavalry reached Tashengnan about eight miles up river from Nanking thus cutting off a possible Chinese retreat in the direction of Wuhu.—Reuter.

MAN OF MOMENT

Shanghai, Dec. 10: With General Matsui's ultimatum, General Pei Chung-hsi, the Kwangsi warlord, who at the outbreak of hostilities buried the hatchet with Chiang Kai-shek and came to the fore as second military commander in China, has become the man of the moment.

As garrison commander, General Tang Sheng-chi is nominally in control of the city, but the actual power is vested in Pei Chung-hsi, former "Ironclad" commander Chang Fah-kwei and other pro-war generals.

General Pei Chung-hsi, who is regarded as Chiang Kai-shek's logical successor, is believed to be responsible for stiffening the previously flagging morale of the defenders. On him, therefore, rests the momentous answer to Matsui's challenge.—Reuter.

NO REPLY

Shanghai, Dec. 10: General Tang Sheng-chi has not replied to Gen. Matsui's ultimatum, according to unconfirmed Chinese reports.—Reuter.

JAPANESE CAPTURE TANGTU
Tokyo, Dec. 10: Japanese forces captured Tangtu in the walled city on the south bank of the Yangtze midway between Nanking and Wuhu this morning, according to a Japanese report received from Wuhu.—Reuter.

BITTER STREET FIGHTING

Shanghai, Dec. 10: Bitter street fighting is raging within the inner walled city of Nanking according to a Japanese press report received here at 6.15 p.m. The report says that a detachment descending through the outer wall from the north-east skirted the Purple Mountain, battered down the Taping gate and entered the inner city. Meanwhile Japanese troops from the east and south are stated to have effected a number of breaches in the outer wall and are also trying to force their way to the inner city.—Reuter.

OFFENSIVE LAUNCHED

Tokyo, Dec. 10: The Japanese forces launched a general assault on Nanking at 1.30 p.m. as the result of the non-arrival of a reply from General Tang Sheng-chi to General Matsui's ultimatum, according to semi-official Japanese reports from the Nanking front. The ultimatum expired at noon, but the Japanese gave one and a half hour's grace.—Reuter.

KING GUSTAVUS OF SWEDEN

Tributes Paid By English Press

London, Dec. 9. During the last few days, newspapers of all shades of opinion in the United Kingdom have contained comment in the friendliest tone on the 30th anniversary of the accession of King Gustavus, celebrated in Sweden yesterday. Tributes to the King as man and ruler have been paid editorially in the principal newspapers.—British Wireless.

DRIVE FOR EGGS AND GRASS SHOES

Nanchang, Dec. 10: A campaign has been launched by the various co-operatives under the Ministry of Industry in Kiangsi Province to contribute eggs and grass shoes to the Chinese soldiers at the front. During the first day of the drive, yesterday nearly 5,000 grass shoes and 48,000 eggs were collected.—Central News.

WUHU INCIDENT REGRETS

In a written reply to Lt.-Comdr. R. T. H. Fletcher (Lab.), Lord Cranborne, in the House of Commons, said that Admiral Sir Charles Little, Commander-in-Chief of the China station, had immediately protested in regard to the Wuhu incident to the Japanese Admiral, who had expressed regret. The British Ambassador at Tokyo had also made representations to the Japanese Government.

With regard to the attack on the steamer Shushan, his present information tended to show that firing was carried out by Chinese troops. If further enquiries, which were being made by the British Consul-General in Shanghai, confirmed this, representations would be addressed to the Chinese Government.—Reuter's.

U.S.S. PANAY'S NARROW ESCAPE

Shanghai, Dec. 10: Bombs fell within a hundred yards of the U.S. gunboat Panay during a Japanese aerial attack on the Pukow waterfront, opposite Nanking yesterday, according to a belated report received to-day. The bombing occurred while the Panay was going upriver to Sanchiabo, two miles distant, where H.M.S. Scarab and H.M.S. Cricket are moored.

The remaining four U.S. Embassy officials in Nanking aboard the Panay at the time state it was the closest shave experienced by any U.S. warship during the whole war.—Reuter.

JAPANESE TROOPS DRIVEN BACK

Luhfen, Dec. 10: Five hundred Japanese troops at Taisien south of Yenmenkwan Pass in north Shansi which attempted to move to Fangchih, a town east, have been driven back by Chinese mobile units, a report reaching here to-day states.

Twenty truckloads of Japanese troops were ambushed by Chinese guerrilla troops on the highway between Kuohsien and Talyuan on December 6, resulting in the destruction of two trucks and some Japanese casualties, another report just received here reveals.—Central News.

FAREWELL TALK

In a farewell talk to a large international gathering at St. John's Cathedral Hall last night, Rev. Dr. E. Stanley Jones, the eminent evangelist and writer, spoke from personal observation of many aspects of the present Japanese activities in China.

He said the nation had in the last few years shown such remarkable promise of accomplishing great things that it was a real tragedy to find her endeavours shattered by the ruthlessness of the invader. Giving an outline of his trips in Central and South China, and of his own reactions, as well as the attitude of men, and women of all stations whom he had met or addressed, to the trial being undergone at the present time, Dr. Jones appealed for the withdrawal of all economic relationship with Japan. He said he was a friend of the Japanese, but their crime in China could not be condoned.

He expressed his faith in the Chinese people, and said that in the final reckoning Japan may have cause to regret her present policy.

block in international relationships and should do it even while this war is on. This is our own moral problem and we should settle it regardless of the actions of the other person involved. Two wrongs do not make one right.

EXTRATERRITORIALITY

2. If we ask Japan to respect the political and territorial sovereignty of China, we must ask the rest of the nations to do the same. We therefore suggest that:

(a) Extraterritoriality be renounced by all nations at once, except where China of her own free choice asks for its continuance. The reasons for Extraterritoriality have been fading out and are practically gone. China has been setting her own house in order at an amazing rate and reforms of every kind are making Extraterritoriality outgrown and unnecessary.

(b) All posting of foreign troops on Chinese territories for the protection of foreign nationals should be done away with at once. This, too, has been outgrown and unnecessary and is at the same time ineffectual. The best security for foreigners is, on the part of China, a strong Central Government and, on the part of foreigners, sympathetic and friendly attitudes toward the Chinese people.

(c) Along with this withdrawal of troops there should be a withdrawal of all foreign gunboats from the territorial waters of China, except the normal visitation of naval ships of one nation by another. These ships in Chinese waters have served their function and the necessity for their presence has been outgrown.

(d) All territory of China now occupied by International Settlements, or Concessions to individual nations, or territory which is legitimately Chinese now occupied by other nations, should be renounced and given back to China, except where China of her own free will asks for their retention. It is quite thinkable and probable that China, given an unfettered choice, may decide that certain places be occupied as at present in the interests of all concerned. But China should decide.

JAPAN'S NEEDS SHOULD BE EXAMINED

3. Japan says that she needs further outlet for the settlement of surplus population. This should be impartially and sympathetically examined by an international Commission and recommendations made as to where suitable places are available and sufficient to meet an honest need. Far better to give up portions of the world for such settlement than to give up the hope of peace for the world.

4. Where Japan lacks raw materials in her own territory, let that same international Commission make recommendations for the supply of those raw materials necessary to her own national life and development.

5. We urge on the part of all nations a change of attitude toward China from being a country to be exploited for selfish ends to one that should be co-operated with and developed in her own interests. She should be given an unfettered opportunity to reform and develop her own life. No one need fear that development least of all Japan, provided Japan is friendly, for the heart of China is essentially pacific. This will turn out to the best interests of all concerned. We are assured by Chinese economists that China would not object to, indeed would welcome, economic assistance on the part of Japan, or other nations, provided it is by mutual consent and provided it leave China's sovereignty intact and real.

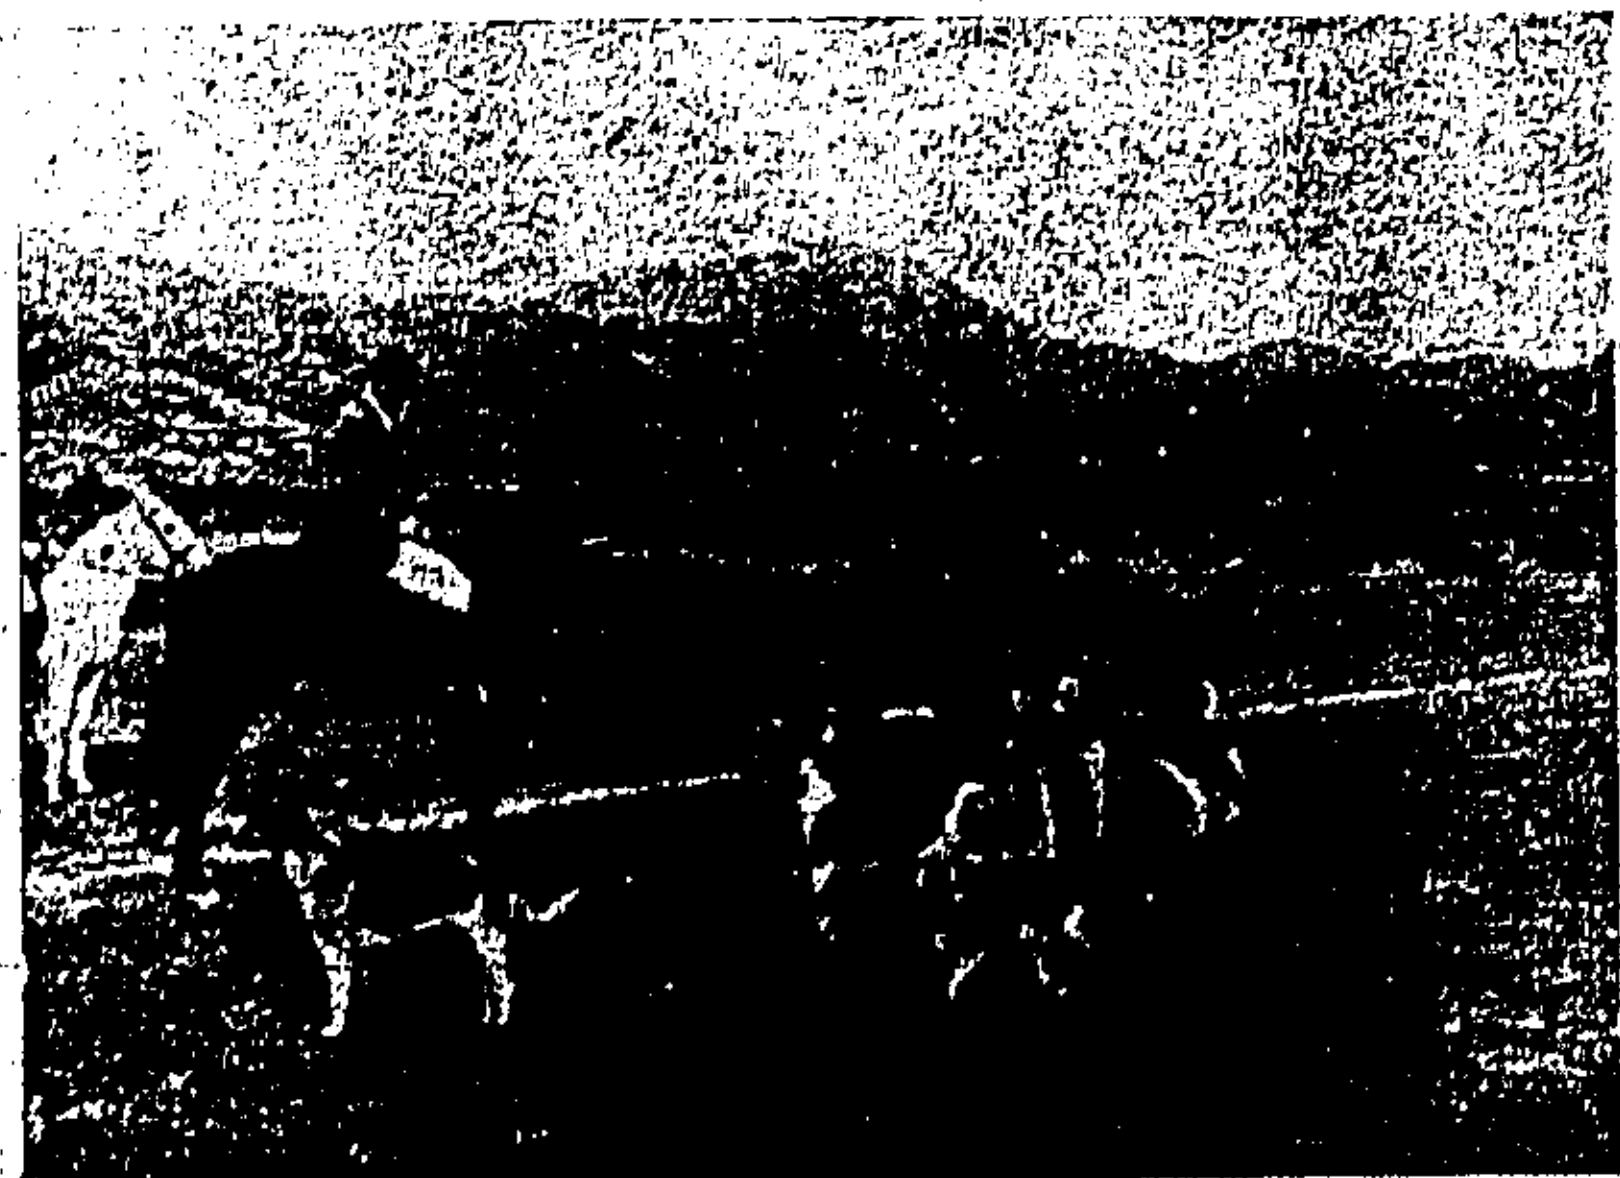

MUTUAL AID

6. These recommendations lead us straight into the necessity for one central recommendation, namely, for co-operation, for mutual aid. Life lived according to ruthless competition, the law of the jungle, has brought us to a jungle civilization, full of fears and wars. The end of this road in world affairs is mutual ruin. We must have the courage, corporately, to turn around, to repent, to take the road to mutual aid, to co-operation. We must love our neighbors as we love ourselves—or we perish.

We therefore make bold to offer to a confused and baffled world a simple solution, the Christian solution, the Kingdom of God on earth. Here is a new order based on mutual aid, brotherhood, love, redemption, and it stands at the door of the lower order based on selfishness, exploitation, mutual ruin, and is ready to replace it both in the individual and in the collective will. This is the stone, rejected indeed by the builders of civilization, that has now become the head of the corner. In many minds around the world, and in the increasing number of minds, it has become the cornerstone of economic international thinking, as offering the only solution. It is being looked to more and more as the only hope for civilization on the brink of ruin. You have tried unworkable ways of hate and force that are fast breaking down through their own contradictions and strains. We ask you to try this.

We ask you to make a start in this Sino-Japanese conflict and begin to apply it here. If you do so, it may be that what seems to have within it the possibility of a world war, with its world ruin, shall turn out to have within it the possibility of a new world based on co-operation and mutual aid, a world of peace and brotherhood. It is worth risking our all upon. It is the only open door.

E. STANLEY JONES.

CRICKET NOTES

Youngsters Bat
Well For I.R.C.
THE PRESS MATCH

(BY "NEW L.B.W.")

There was only one League match on the cricket programme last week-end, a junior encounter between the Indian Recreation Club second eleven and Army "B." Both teams have been experiencing a rather lean time and the match turned out a fairly interesting one, though the Indians won with something to spare. The soldiers were dismissed for the moderate score of 133, to which Sergeant Painter contributed a very hard-hitting 78. The feature of the Indians' innings was the batting of the two schoolboy all-rounders, Ismail Ali and K. M. Rumi. The former made many more runs in this game but Rumi is definitely a better bat, possessing a greater variety of strokes and employing them with better discretion. I am told that Ali would have made even more runs had he used better judgment in picking the right ball to hit. For instance, he made a number of dangerous swings at good length balls, but patted back far too many half-volleys that should have gone for four. However, he will learn with experience. Both youngsters also bowled with a fair amount of credit and I have little doubt that if properly looked after they will develop into more than useful players.

There was no very good reason why the Press should have lost to Lt.-Cmdr. Nicholson's XI at King's Park on Sunday. The position about 35 minutes from close of play was that their fourth and fifth batsmen were in and well-set. Norman Mackay, one of them, was seeing the ball remarkably well and made some fine hits. He looked all the while like he was going for a win and so infected his partner with this spirit that the latter also started lashing out gaily. Not being naturally built for a forcing type of game, he failed to cover a ball to hit which he had come out yards. Lt. Skelton behind the stumps whipped the balls off in a flash and that started the rot. The rest of the innings did not last another twenty minutes.

The game was a most enjoyable one. The general atmosphere of King's Park is not always conducive to a holiday spirit but the Navy have always been a most cheerful side and when they and the Boys of the Press get together, nothing short of a rainstorm could serve as a dampener.

Commander Nicholson, who I am beginning to believe, has made an exhaustive study of the art of winning the toss, once again beat the Press skipper to it. He sent in Captain Allen and Lieut. Skelton and these two settled down at once. A. R. Abbas of the I.R.C. and George Souza of Craighower had been borrowed by the Press for the occasion, and opened the bowling. Abbas pitched them too far up to start with, and a few easy fours resulted. Runs came steadily and attractively. I am writing without the score book and therefore cannot say for certain, but I think the score was around 50 when Allen, who had been making some dazzling late cuts, misjudged one which popped up and an easy catch to slip resulted. Capt. Whitmarsh, who followed, should have been out in single figures. Luke bowled a ball which the batsman shaped to play to leg but it snicked off his bat over the off-stump. In the meantime the slips had moved in opposite directions, and the ball went between. Whitmarsh later settled down to some hard hitting and with Skelton laid the foundation of a big Navy score. He gave four or five more chances, but that was natural in a dashing innings like his. The Navy eventually declared at 170-odd for seven wickets.

The Press were given a fine start by A. R. Rumi, the old I.R.C. skipper, and A. R. Abbas. Abbas, generally an attractive player, was actually over-shadowed at one stage by the veteran, who must have been playing the game before four or five of the twenty-two players there were born. Nicely-timed cover shots were the chief feature of Rumi's knock, which lasted till the first barrage of the naval bowlers had been worn down. Abbas also played a good innings but apart from them only Mackay, who, as has already been said, appeared optimistic about a win, did much. The top at the end was pretty complete. Seventy-odd runs were made for the loss of only three wickets, but the whole side were out for 104. However, the game itself is the main thing and

CLUB TO MEET
THE NAVY
To-day's Rugby
Classic

The second game in the first round of the Rugby Football Triangular Tournament will take place on the Club ground at Happy Valley to-day commencing at 4 p.m. when the Navy meet the Club. It is expected that some good football will be seen as both the sides are well matched and both play an open game with fast three-quarter movements.

This season, the Navy have been successful in previous friendly matches, winning all three with scores of 18-14, 13-10, and 13-9. In this first Triangular Tournament match, the Club hope to reverse previous decisions, but to do so they will have to go all out. The packs are fairly evenly matched, with the Navy possibly a little livelier in the loose, where they have shown great skill in getting the ball back to their three-quarters. There should be nothing in the line-outs, but in the set scrums, the Club will possibly hold a slight advantage, as they have a hooker who can be relied upon to do his job, provided that he has adequate shove behind him. There is not much between the back divisions, though the Club are possibly a little cleverer. All the Navy men, however, run hard and straight, and Harvey is always dangerous in possession when 10 to 15 yards from the line. If the Club are to stop scoring by the Navy, all movements must be stopped at the outset, by hard and immediate tackling. It is in this department that the Club are likely to fail, as some members of the team have a deplorable tendency to run beside the man with the ball, in the hopes that he will pass, rather than to bring him down with a hard tackle immediately, so that he cannot pass and the movement is broken up. The Club backing up could also show some improvement. Whatever the result, it will be a good game and worth watching.

Before the Triangular Tournament game, there will be an "A" fixture, when the Club will play the Seaforths, commencing at 2.45 p.m.

Lieut. J. A. M. Rice Evans will referee the Triangular Tournament game and Mr. D. W. MacEwen the "A" fixture.

Club and Navy Sides have been selected as follows:

Navy:—Surgeon Lieut. Ellis (Medway), A. B. Northcott (Adventure), Lieut. Harvey (Odin) (Captain), A. B. Marsh (Decoy), Sub/Lieut. Kyrke (Regent), Lieut. Walsham (Adventure), Lieut. Talbot (Otus), A. B. Thatcher (Eagle), S. B. A. Jones (Adventure), A. B. Romans (Eagle), Sgt. Burston (Adventure), Lieut. Maydon (Orpheus), Lieut. Woods (Grampus), Sub/Lieut. Anderson (Olympus) and Sub/Lt. Ogle (Phoenix).

Club 1st XV:—W. M. MacGrath, D. H. Stewart, H. D. Bidwell, W. E. Grieve, H. van Leeuwen, A. H. R. Butcher, J. L. Bonnar, K. A. Watson, K. W. Salter, A. W. Holden, W. E. Peers, C. F. Needham, J. C. Miller (Captain), A. J. G. Taylor and J. Redman.

Club "A" XV:—J. R. Henderson, H. F. Hopkins, M. G. Carruthers, E. M. Watts, L. Lammert, C. W. Lyle, R. Rutherford, R. G. L. Oliphant, J. S. Dunnet (Captain), T. H. Pratt, B. Hynes, A. S. Olsen, A. G. Dalziel, K. H. G. White and H. W. E. Heath.

CHARITY SOCCER

Chinese Team Selected
For Xmas Day

The following have been selected to represent the Hong Kong Chinese Amateur Athletic Federation against the Hong Kong Football Association, in the charity match, to be held on Christmas Day on the Caroline Hill ground, commencing at 3.30 p.m.:

Team:—Kwan-kon; Lee Tin-sang and Mak Shiu-hon; Leung Wing-chiu, Soong Ling-sing, and Lau Hing-choi; Han Ching-to, Lai Shiu-wing, Chan Tak-fai, Fung King-cheong and Chan Ping-to.

Reserves:—Lee Kwok-wai, Tay Quee-liang, Lo Wai-kuen and Cheon Moon-wing.

as far as that went both sides must have been thoroughly satisfied with the day's work.

"I am afraid I know very little about the rest of last week's cricket. I could not see any of Saturday's games myself and the Indian-Army "B" notes being the only resume that I have received out of three that were promised, I will have to leave it at that."

LADIES' DOUBLES
TENNIS FINAL

The finals of the Colony's Ladies Doubles Tennis Championship will be played at the United Services Recreation Club at 3 p.m. to-day, when the holders, Miss Rose Perry and Mrs. C. C. Chin, will defend the title against Mrs. Oliver and Mrs. Mills.

H. E. the Governor and Lady Northcote have signified their intention of being present.

ODDS IN FAVOUR OF SCHEMLINGMeeting Harry Thomas
On Monday

New York, December 10: Max Schmeling continues to enjoy high odds in the betting on the fight between him and the American, Harry Thomas, which is to take place at the Madison Square Garden on Monday. Schmeling stands as four to one favourite with the great majority of boxing experts predicting victory for him although Jack Dempsey maintains that Thomas's chances of winning are by no means slight.

Never Neglect COUGHS & COLDS

YOU catch coughs, colds and influenza far quicker than you may realize; and if left unchecked such troubles just as quickly develop into pneumonia or bronchitis. So keep your bronchial tubes and lungs sound and healthy by regularly taking Peps antiseptic breatheable tablets.

When dissolved in the mouth Peps give off rich, medicinal essences, which are breathed down into the lungs. Peps overcome infectious germs, heal the sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and soothe the throat. They are unequalled for the speedy cure of chest and lung weaknesses.

To preserve the concentrated essences which Peps contain every tablet is wrapped in silver paper. Therefore no bacteria can enter, and the full, potent medicine is always available at any moment.

DR. KOTEWALL'S SPEECH

Dr. Kotewall then addressed the gathering as follows:—

QUARRY BAY SCHOOL PRIZE DAY

Splendid Programme
Of Entertainment

Mrs. A.R.H. Phillips Officiates

The many parents and friends who attended the annual prize-giving of the Quarry Bay School yesterday afternoon, at which Mrs. A. R. H. Phillips officiated, enjoyed a splendid programme of entertainment provided by the pupils.

Miss J. W. Buckwell, Acting Headmistress, presided and in her report on the past year's work gave a comprehensive survey of the School's activities and paid warm tribute to the Staff for their kind co-operation.

The spirit of Yuletide was introduced in the programme of entertainment which opened with dramatized songs, "Red Riding Hood and the Five Little Pigs" by Class I, and "A Dream of Nursery Rhymes" by Class 2, both of which were very well received.

Next, pupils of Class 3 contributed three dances, "Skipping Dance," "Flower Fairies" and "Elves in the Rain," all of which were executed with grace and skill. "Glad Tidings," a Nativity play, was splendidly acted by Class 4 the talent shown by some of the juveniles being very promising.

The programme concluded with all present singing the beautiful Christmas hymns, "Hark the Herald Angles Sing" and "O Come, All Ye Faithful."

After the singing of the National Anthem the gathering dispersed.

SCHOOL REPORT

The report for the year, presented by the Acting Headmistress (Miss J.W. Buckwell) was as follows:—

The school year began in September 1936 with 88 names on the roll, and ended in July 1937 with 87 pupils.

Except for 7 cases of chicken-pox, and 1 each of measles and diphtheria the health and attendance have been good.

On January 23 Miss Cotton proceeded on leave prior to retirement, and Miss Anderson was appointed Headmistress. Also, on January 23 Miss Beays proceeded on long leave. Mrs. Woodward was appointed in her place. On April 5 Miss Anderson left on long leave. Miss Buckwell was appointed Acting Headmistress during Miss Anderson's absence.

Mrs. Walton, the visiting singing-mistress resigned at the end of the Summer Term. She was not replaced.

WORK

Mr. Ralston has visited the school and inspected the work.

Peter Kimm came first, and Michael Proulx second in the Annual Examinations, but both refused a Government Scholarship owing to the fact that they were leaving the Colony before Christmas.

"Mr. Upsdell, Mr. Kay, ladies and gentlemen and boys of King's College: I have been privileged to read beforehand the Headmaster's report, and I heartily congratulate him, his able and devoted staff and his students on another year of splendid work. To be able to show an average attendance of 98 per cent. in a school of 300 students; to have secured seven honours and 39 distinctions at the University School Certificate examination when 51 passed out of 57 who sat; to have been awarded two of the three King Edward VII Scholarships and two Government Studentships in Training; and to have won the championship in the Government Junior Football League without the loss of a single game—all these are achievements which few schools in Hong Kong can equal and none can excel.

Mr. Upsdell has just said that young as the College is, traditions, worthy of its position in the Colony, are being steadily and surely established. I am very glad of this. But, my young friends, please remember that tradition is not created in a day. Whittier, the American poet, says: "Tradition wears a snowy beard." The cherished traditions of a school are not built up by mere scholastic attainments or by special prowess in the field of sport. In his report your Headmaster has, in some measure, indicated to you the way. If you will follow that path, resolutely and constantly, you may count yourselves worthy sons of King's College."

Dr. Kotewall added that he had persuaded Mr. Kay to grant the School a whole holiday on Monday. (Loud Applause).

Three cheers for Dr. Kotewall and three for the School and its Headmaster terminated the proceedings.

mas. David Odell came third and was allowed to take the scholarship.

On March 17 school sports were held for the first time. They took place by the kind permission of the Talkoo Club at their tennis courts, and were attended by a number of parents and friends. Mrs. Greig kindly presented the prizes.

The Net-ball team attended the Display and Presentation of Prizes, under the auspices of the Hong Kong Schools and Net-ball League, at the Diocesan Girls' School. The Team was accompanied by Miss Anderson and Mrs. Woodward. The Team played one demonstration game. It received the Junior Cup as a result of a series of matches played during the season. David Odell was the Captain of the School Team.

THANKS

I should like to take this opportunity of thanking the Staff for their kind co-operation during the nine months I have been in this school whilst Miss Anderson has been on leave. Such help given with cheerfulness, sympathy and understanding, makes for the smooth-running of a school.

We, the pupils, wish to tender our grateful thanks to parents for financing their children's fancy costumes, to Dr. Herliot for the loan of plants, to Mr. Finkle of the Talkoo Docks for putting up this platform and for the extra chairs lent. And to Mr. Phillips of the Talkoo Sugar Refinery for loaning and arranging the foot-lights. They add so much to the general effect of an entertainment.

We are very pleased indeed to have Mrs. Phillips here this afternoon, and we wish to thank her for coming to distribute the prizes.

PRIZE LIST

The prize winners were as follows:—

Class 4:—1st, Peter Kimm; 2nd, Michael Proulx; 3rd, David Odell.
Class 3:—1st, Jean Carpenter; 2nd, William Wright.
Class 2:—1st, Helen Fraser; 2nd, John Ewing.

League Urges Freeing Of Raw Materials

Geneva, Dec. 9.

The freeing of the markets for raw materials is urged by the League Economic Committee in its report to the Council published here. The report suggests that the governments conform as far as possible in following the principle that raw materials should not be subjected to export prohibitions and restrictions, except in pursuance of an international regulation scheme, nor be subjected to export duties except those duties imposed uniformly on all buyers for revenue or in order to finance improved production methods.

The report further suggests that foreigners should have the same rights and facilities as nationals for developing natural resources in both sovereign countries and colonies. — Reuter.

OPEN DOOR IS CLOSED

Manchukuo Shuts Out All Except Japan

London, Dec. 9.

The question of the application of the Exchange Control laws in Manchukuo to discriminate in favour of Japan was raised in the House of Commons to-day by Mr. J. A. de Rothschild (Lib.) and Lord Cranborne. In a written reply said the British Consul-General at Mukden had already protested against this discriminatory legislation, which was an evident contradiction of the principle of the "Open Door" and British treaty rights.

The British Ambassador in Tokyo had drawn the attention of the Japanese Government to the position and he understood the French and American governments had taken similar action.

JAPAN'S LATEST BOND ISSUE

To Finance Operations On Chinese Soil

Tokyo, Dec. 10.

National Bonds worth 600,000,000 yen, designed to cover part of the cost of the China Incident and a fraction of the budgetary deficit, will be issued by the Treasury this month. It is semi-officially learned. Of the first instalment of 300,000,000 yen to be issued to-day 200,000,000 yen will be classified as Manchurian Incident Appropriation. The bonds will bear interest at 3.5 per cent. to mature in seven years and three months. — Reuter.

SNOW HAMPERS FARM WORK

Hailstorm Forces Down Air Liner

London, Dec. 9.

Snow and sleet are reported from a number of districts to-day. Snow is general over Hampshire, where a number of roads are now impassable. Several roads in Yorkshire and Durham are impassable, and drifts many feet deep are frequent.

Farm work is at a standstill. Falls of sleet and rain in Lincolnshire are adding a fear of floods to the anxieties of farmers.

A hail storm accompanied by lightning over the Channel forced down the Imperial Airways liner, Horatius, on the usual mid-day service from Paris to Croydon. The liner landed at Lympne, where inspection revealed that a flash had burned a two-foot area in one wing. Passengers, who included Miss Ellen Wilkinson on her way home from Barcelona, continued the journey to London by train. — British Wireless.

PARIS EXHIBITION WILL REOPEN

Paris, Dec. 10.

Whether or not the World Exhibition should reopen its doors in 1938 seems now to have been definitely settled in the affirmative, as the Economic Committee of the French Chamber, which on Wednesday afternoon opposed reopening, met again on Thursday and decided to adopt the reverse attitude. As the opposition of this body was the chief obstacle to reopening, it now seems certain that the exhibition will be held next year. — Transocean News Service.

L.P.T.B. URGES "ZONED" HOUSING AND INDUSTRY WORKERS' TRAFFIC PROBLEM

"Proper zoning of housing and industry" to mitigate the "well known insoluble problem" of accommodating the fast-increasing load of workmen's traffic is urged by the London Passenger Transport Board's fourth annual report, presented to the Minister of Transport recently.

The report shows that, despite the bus strike during the Coronation period of May—which reduced the number of passengers by 88,000,000 compared with the corresponding period in 1936—the total of passengers carried during the year ended June 30 by the Board and the main line suburban branches was more than 4,231,000,000.

This was an increase of more than 16,000,000, and the Board's gross revenue rose by £505,191 to £31,901,760. Net revenue was £26,014 higher, at £25,280,053.

BALANCED MOVEMENT
Discussing the transport problem of industrial London the report says: "By a proper zoning of housing and industry, so as to secure to some extent a balanced inward and outward movement of passengers, much can be done to mitigate the traffic problem."

"The Board looks forward to the time when there will be the fullest co-operation between all the various interests, including transport, in the planning of housing industrial development, to the best advantage of the community."

WORLD'S FINEST CREW QUARTERS

Example Set By New Giant Liner

The quarters for the crew in the giant Cunard-White Star liner No. 552, the Queen Mary's sister ship, which is to be launched at Clydebank next September, will be superior to those in any ship so far built, writes Hector C. Bywater, "Daily Telegraph and Morning Post" Shipping Correspondent.

They will surpass the high standard of comfort in crews' living spaces specified for all future British merchant vessels.

Owing to her greatly enlarged passenger accommodation, No. 552 will carry a crew of nearly 1,200, compared with 1,101 in the Queen Mary.

A private "deck" is set apart for the captain and the staff captain, and will be known as the "Captains' Bridge". Situated at the forward end of the sun deck, it will contain sleeping and day cabins for these two officers, as well as accommodation for their personal stewards.

LARGER MESS ROOMS

Special accommodation for the engineer officers is arranged on the sun deck about the second funnel. Here will be quartered all the engineers from the chief downwards—about 75 in all. They will have at their disposal a large and handsome dining saloon and a recreation room on the sports deck.

Although the Queen Mary's accommodation for stewards, seamen, firemen and greasers showed a marked improvement on previous practice, the same quarters in No. 552 will be incomparably superior.

Among the amenities provided for the stewards are large and well ventilated mess rooms. There are luxurious liners now afloat in which the crew's accommodation leaves much to be desired. But, so far as British ships are concerned, the days of overcrowded and stuffy "glory holes" and forecassies are definitely passing.

This is not entirely due to Board of Trade pressure. Many owners have acted on their own initiative, and the standard set in No. 552 will probably lead to further improvements in other ships.

CHINESE DOCTORS TELL OF WAR TRAGEDIES

would be well organised and under Government orders. Doctors and nurses would be trained not only for ordinary surgical work, but for the extreme cases of emergency which war provided.

ONLY THEORY

This, unfortunately, was only theory as yet, but if some day the opportunity for reorganisation presented itself, he hoped it would be carried out on those lines. For the present, they were assured of enough supplies, but personnel was lacking. This lay in the wrong medical policy that had been laid down, and if they were sincere and put their efforts properly, they would get hold of a large number of doctors and nurses to go to the front.

Continuing on the need for organisation, Dr. Li said they in Hong Kong had materials, they had sent them on, but where were they going? They had sent doctors—these did not know where to go. Organisation must be perfected. They, as leaders of the medical profession in South China, held the key. First of all, they must push the Government. If the authorities would not move, then they must act, make their own plans, appoint their own organiser. Support would be forthcoming, money would be subscribed. Of that he had no doubt.

URGENT APPEAL

Dr. Li summed up his own speech as an urgent appeal for the soldiers and the civilians who were exposed to the Japanese murder. He himself had been expelled from Shanghai when the Japanese took over. He was anxious to go back to the front and had made attempts to do so, but had been sent down here as liaison officer with the League of Nations medical experts who are coming. He was leaving for Canton the following day (to-day) for consultation with the authorities, and he hoped that in about a month they would have evolved at least a skeleton plan from which to work.

WONDERFUL MORALE

Dr. C. S. Mei was full of praise for the Cantonese soldiers at the front. He said their discipline and morale were wonderful. Their high officers thought much of them and were very particular that the wounded did not mix with other soldiers, as they were afraid their exceptional spirit might be lowered by contamination with slackers or cowards. He backed up Dr. Li's plea for organisation, saying that the transportation of the wounded in particular was of great importance. Actually, between the firing line and the Soochow Hospital, men had sometimes to travel three, four, or even five days before they could receive attention, and in many cases this distance had to be traversed as best they could themselves.

The subject of spies, Dr. Mei continued, was a doubly distasteful one. There were traitors who would sell their countrymen for a song, lighting flares and generally giving help to the enemy during raids. For all that, the morale of the soldiers, he repeated, was wonderful and if that spirit prevailed, China must surely win.

LACK OF EQUIPMENT

Dr. Edwin Kam confined himself almost solely to highly technical comments on medical work at the front, describing wounds, operations performed sometimes under extreme difficulties, and the lack of equipment. He was glad that the Overseas Chinese from California had supported the Association in the way they did, giving about $20,000 worth of material, and he understood that four doctors were coming here to tender their services.

Dr. Kam added a story which if true gives some idea of the heartrending conditions which must exist in the front. He was told by some wounded soldiers that the very badly wounded men were sometimes thrown into the river, as the agony of hearing them groaning on the ground was too much, and nothing else could be done for them. Dr. Kam had left Soochow in such dire straits that every stitch of clothing he wore was borrowed, but he concluded by saying he was anxious to go back to the front.

Dr. Li Shu-pui thanked the three doctors for their presence, and for their addresses, after which the party dispersed.

BADMINTON IN SHANGHAI

Season To Begin
Soon

LEAGUE REDUCED

The badminton season is to commence shortly. Owing to the withdrawal of the Portuguese, the S. M. Police, the Swiss Club, the Power Company, and the Cathedral Club, league competition has been reduced to four divisions only, in which there will be the senior and junior men's sections, the ladies and the mixed series.

Only three teams have entered for the men's first division, one each from the Cercle Sportif Francals, the Union Church, and the Shanghai Rape Club. The second division also comprises three teams, two from the Cercle Sportif Francals (a British team and an International team), and one from the Union Church.

Competition in the ladies league will again include three teams, one each from the Country Club, the Cercle Sportif Francals, and the Union Church. Four have joined in the mixed doubles, one representing the Country Club, two the Cercle Sportif Francals (also one British and one International team), and one the Union Church. Due to the small number of entries, three matches will be played in all groups of the league this season. The senior men's matches will take place every Monday, the mixed every Tuesday, the junior men's every Wednesday, and the ladies every Thursday.

PROSPECTS OF THE SEASON

During the past two years this game has made rapid strides in popularity. Two interports have already been held. Shanghai sent a representative side to Tientsin last year with the latter city paying a returned visit later in the season. On both occasions Shanghai won premier laurels by rather wide margins. It is of course, too early to foretell anything in regard to the port-to-port engagement. But every effort will be made to keep the annual matches going so that every badminton player has something to look forward to.

As regards playing material in Shanghai, the departure of P. H. Spagnoletti leaves a vacancy in local interport ranks which will be hard to fill. Old-timers such as A. G. Meise, W. H. S. "Stuck" Duff, and J. G. Forbes are still available while a number of first-rate recruits like Lewis Carson and C. C. Squires should strengthen Shanghai's prowess.

DIPLOMAT'S FATAL ENNUI

Hero of Miss Victoria Sackville-West's book about her grandmother, "Peppita," is her grandfather, the second Lord Sackville. In it she tells the story of his one diplomatic indiscretion, which cost him his career.

He had been a quite successful British Minister at Washington for seven years when he received a letter from an unknown correspondent in California. The writer asked whether he would be serving British interests by voting for President Cleveland.

Lord Sackville very unwisely replied, to find both letters starred under such headlines as "The British Lion's Paw Thrust into American Politics."

Miss Sackville-West says that the reason which impelled her grandfather, who was naturally lazy, to answer the letter at all, much more to reply in his own hand, remains a mystery.

The explanation given by her mother, Lord Sackville's daughter and his chateau, was that he was spending a summer holiday at the time and in his boredom could find nothing better to do.

BLUE IN DIVORCE SUIT

A underdressed divorce suit brought by Mrs. Elidabeth Wansbrough, against her husband, Mr. A. G. Wansbrough, the rowing Blue, was listed for hearing before Mr. Justice Langton in the Divorce Court.

Mrs. Wansbrough is the daughter of the late Sir George Lewis, the solicitor. Mr. Wansbrough stroked the Cambridge crew to victory in 1925.

A fine of $2 was imposed on St. N. Albrecht, who pleaded guilty to a summons for parking his car on the wrong side of Saigon Street on November 21.

The city will be a convenient centre for representatives of units in Yorkshire, the North of England generally, Scotland, and Ireland. These are to be the only members present at this year's festival, with the exception of delegates from the ninety new branches.

Viscount Halifax, Lord Middleton, and the Rev. P. B. ("Tubby") Clayton, founder padre of Toc H, will speak at the festival gathering this evening. Lord Halifax, acting on behalf of the King, who is Toc H patron, is to light the bronze Lamps of Maintenance for the ninety newest branches. Over twenty of the branches are overseas—in India, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Jamaica, and Mauritius.

CHAIN OF LIGHT

This year the symbolic World Chain of Light, an annual part of the Toc H ritual, coincides precisely and happily with the festival week-end at York. Yearly, on the birthday of the movement, all Toc H branches light their Lamps at 9 p.m. by their own time. As the clock varies from East to West around the globe, anyone who could take a bird's eye view of the turning world would see it slowly encircled by the lights of Toc H.

The chain starts this year in India. By a curious chance the first lamp to be lit in Calcutta Cathedral at 9 p.m. (local time) on December 11 is that which Lord Halifax himself presented to Toc H in India during his term as Viceroy. At once, as the chain passes round the world, it reminds Toc H members everywhere of their primary tasks, personal service by each man and the promotion of understanding between classes and nations. In due course the 2,000 members assembled at York will add their link.

WINDOW SMASHED DURING "BLACK-OUT"

During the "black-out" of the Colony on Thursday night, a person threw an iron table link at the Shui Hing Company smashing the glass window and causing damage to the extent of $100. The motive for the crime is not known.
